The Kennedy Center

THE JOHN F. KENNEDY CENTER FOR THE PERFORMING ARTS

The Kennedy Center American College Theater Festival, part of the Rubenstein Arts Access Program, is generously funded by David and Alice Rubenstein.

Additional support is provided by The Honorable Stuart Bernstein and Wilma E. Bernstein; Dr. Gerald and Paula McNichols Foundation; the National Committee for the Performing Arts; The Harold and Mimi Steinberg Charitable Trust; and Beatrice and Anthony Welters and the Ann Bryce Foundation.

This production is entered in the Kennedy Center American College Theater Festival (KCACTF). The aims of this national theater education program are to identify and promote quality in college-level theater production. To this end, each production entered is eligible for a response by a regional KCACTF representative, and selected students and faculty are invited to participate in KCACTF programs involving scholarships, internships, grants and awards for actors, directors, dramaturgs, playwrights, designers, stage managers and critics at both the regional and national levels.

Productions entered on the Participating level are eligible for invitation to the KCACTF regional festival and may also be considered for national awards recognizing outstanding achievement in production, design, direction and performance.

Last year more than 1,300 productions were entered in the KCACTF involving more than 200,000 students nationwide. By entering this production, our theater department is sharing in the KCACTF goals to recognize, reward, and celebrate the exemplary work produced in college and university theaters across the nation.

About Our Special Stars

When our friends make a donation to the lola Community Theatre, they help us pay for the production costs of all our presentations. Royalties and rental are especially expensive for musical presentations. We must buy set building materials and either make or rent costumes. Other expenses cover such things as makeup, props, and special sound or lighting. Our actors, musicians and technical people are all volunteers looking for a creative experience, and donations help give them this opportunity. In addition, they help fund the Children's Summer Theater project. Our friends' dollars help us in our mission to provide quality theater, entertainment and recreation needs for hundreds of area people of all ages. That's why our contributors are the real Stars of ICT.
