ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The Allen County Arts Council appreciates the generosity and cooperation of the following in the production of the play: Iola Lumber and Prefabrication Products; Sleeper Furniture Co.; Bill Roush Plumbing; Iola Antiques; Stark Antiques of Ft. Scott; Dr. Frank Lenski; Mary Lenski; Gertrude Larzalere; Ann Curry; Maureen Simmons; Jerry Cartright; Charlotte McAtee; Joan McCoy; Iola Register; Humboldt Union; Iola State Bank; Humboldt National Bank; Spencer & Sons; Crossroads Motel; Tom Cameron; KALN Radio Station.

Art Display in Lobby

You are invited to enjoy between acts the one-man show of sculpture, painting and ceramics in the lobby. Most of the work is of cast bronze and is of excellent quality. Many of the pieces were for master's degree thesis. The artist is Al Kober, art instructor at Hutchinson Junior College. Most of the items are for sale. For information contact Omer Knoll of the local fine arts faculty or Mr. Kober himself.

COMING EVENTS

"The Matchmaker" by Thornton Wilder will be presented by the Allen County Fine Arts Council on March 3 and 4, 1967. Watch for announcement of dates for tryouts which are open to all. This is the delightful comedy from which the musical show "Hello Dolly" was adapted.

Classes and workshops will be resumed after the first of the year. These are open only to members of the Arts Council and their invitees. Watch for announcement of dates.

Membership in the Arts Council is open to everyone. Its activities provide opportunity and enjoyment in various phases of the arts. The Council strives to serve the entire community through the time and talents of members drawn from as wide an area as possible. Call EN 5-2311 for detailed information.

All Arts Council members and friends are invited to assist in "striking the set" Sunday afternoon at 1:30 until.....!

K.U. Fine Arts Grant

When Kansas University received a grant from the Higher Education Act in 1965, the funds were meant to be used to assist the Allen County Arts Council in its program activities for county residents. A joint project of the University of Kansas Extension and the Council has been initiated, with the idea of the grant providing some additional financial assistance to the council to gain personnel, and supplies, in order to do more than it could have by itself, without this aid. The program is meant to help the county help itself to develop its resources of talent in music, drama and art.

The Iola Community Theatre has come a long way in a short time and the Council would like to produce similar results in art and music. Mrs. Simmons serves as Field Representative in Iola, supervising the program at the local level. Tom Rea is the Project Director from Kansas University. Kay McNeive is co-ordinator between Mr. Rea at K.U. and Mrs. Simmons and the Council.

A Creative Dramatics Program is being launched the second week in January to train adults in the community to consequently give children the rewards that can be reaped from such training, to bring fun and an appreciation of the art of the theatre.

Plans for projects in vocal and instrumental music and art for community residents are at present in preparatory stages, and it is hoped there will soon be something concrete in these areas also, to offer those who live in Allen County.

Contributions to the Allen County Arts Council Theatre are used to maintain the momentum which has been established in the past two years and to accelerate our program in the coming year.

Donations to the Theatre fall into three categories: Sponsors, 10 or more memberships; Donors, 5 or more; and Patrons, 1 or more.
