ABOUT THE DIRECTOR

The Iola Community Theater is very proud to have Mr. J.M. Goodwin as director of the current production, "Boeing-Boeing." Mr. Goodwin graduated from Kansas State Teachers College, Emporia, with a B.A. in theater and a B.S.E. in English, in 1973. He currently teaches English and debate at Marmaton Valley High School, Moran. He has worked in all phases of theater, both technical and acting/directing. Mr. Goodwin has worked with the Topeka Community Theatre and the Dale Easton Players of Topeka. While at KSTC, he was president of the Emporia State Players and went on the 1969 USO tour with this group for eight weeks in the Orient. This is his first show since college graduation.

ABOUT THE CAST

Only two members of the cast have been in Iola Community Theater productions. Kathy Spencer was a member of the chorus in "Fiddler on the Roof" and had a cameo part in "Catch Me If You Can." Janet Dieker performed as a dancer in "The King and I." Newcomers to the stage in this production are Marilyn Loehr, Iola, Nancy Tinsley, Colony, Richard McKinney, Osawatomie, and Milton R. Holloway, Cawker City.
