ABOUT THE DIRECTOR

The Iola Community Theatre is very proud to have Mr. Joe Carder as director of the current production, "Cactus Flower." Mr. Carder received his Masters in Drama from Oklahoma University in 1962. Since then he has been involved in theatre, television, and films. He has acted, directed, designed, and been in virtually every area of dramatics. Some of the theatres in which he has performed in one capacity or another are: Mummer's Theatre in Oklahoma City, the Diamond Horseshoe Dinner Theatre in Amarillo, Texas, and the Pinwheel Playhouse in Dallas. He is also a staff member of the N.Y. Theatre Ensemble. Mr. Carder has currently been filming a short subject "Alpha" in New Mexico, Texas, and California.

ABOUT THE CAST

Returning to the stage in "Cactus Flower" are Mary Martin, Richard Spencer, Jack Jeffery, Jim Smith, and Ottmar Lang. These performers have given the Iola Community Theatre many hours of fine entertainment over the years since the theatre was organized. They have been leading actors, supporting actors, and, always, behind the scene workers.

Newcomers to the stage in this production are Vicki Hay, Fern Marsh, John Bertoncino, Jr., Kay Gilbert, and Darrell Drybread. While this is their first time on stage, most of these performers have worked in other areas of the theatre.

ANNOUNCEMENT OF COMING EVENTS

The Cultural Arts Committee has arranged to bring us two outstanding programs this season. They are The Roger Wagner Chorale, Nov. 19, and The Neil Wolfe Trio, March 24. On February 21-24, The Iola Community Theatre will present the musical, "Fiddler On The Roof." Directing this production will be Mr. George Mastick. Mr. Mastick is the Speech and Drama Instructor at Neosho County Community Junior College.
