ABOUT THE CAST

All the performers in "Sunday In New York" are new to the Bowlus Stage. Kathi Basehore comes from Reading, Pennsylvania and works as a legal secretary. Her husband, Jon works as a computer programmer for Berg Mfg. Co. They now live in Iola with their dog, Brutus.

Ron Alsop comes from K.C., Mo. and is the speech teacher at Iola Jr. High School. His wife, Sharon, works as export secretary at Berg Mfg. Co. They moved to Iola in August, 1976.

Jim Strahle and his wife Joan moved to Iola from Kansas City in 1973. Jim works for Intercollegiate Press and does art work. He designed the posters advertising the show. They have two children; Jenny, age 2 and Jimmy, 5 months.

Lonnie & Julie Wann moved to Iola from Oklahoma in April, 1976. Lonnie is territorial manager for Kerr-McGee Chemical Corp., officed in Chanute. Julie is a housewife and creative writer. They have one son, Stuart, age 14.

Wayne Yockey is single and lives in Humboldt, Kansas where he studies piano tuning, builds musical instruments and composes music in his spare time. Wayne worked on the running crew for "Hello, Dolly".

Dee Sell has lived in Iola most of his life and works with his father at Sell Constructors Inc. Paula, his wife, works for Dr. Richard Hull. They have one son, Ryan, age 16 months.
