PROCLAMATION

From Theseus, our Noble and Valiant Duke, Homeward bound from his defeat of the Amazonian Army, come greetings to his loyal subjects, and the joyous news that, before this moon is old he will wed Hippolyta, Queen of the Amazons. With pomp, with triumph, and with reveling.

Let masques and plays be readied against the nuptial day. To the actors chosen to play at the wedding of the Duke. A pension will be granted from the Ducal Treasury to the amount of six pence for each actor every day of his life.

Let every citizen of Athens give fitting welcome to our noble Lord.
