Author's Acknowledgements

The authors would like gratefully to acknowledge the inspiration derived from the original quilt design, "The Sun Sets on Sunbonnet Sue" as design and executed by the Seamsters Union Local No. 500 of Lawrence, Kansas, and the inspiration provided by Grace Snyder and Nellie Snyder Yost in their book, "No Time on My Hands."

The authors would also like gratefully to acknowledge the following texts and individuals as invaluable resources in the development of the play: "New Discoveries in American Quilts" by Robert Bishop; "American Quilts and Coverlets" by Robert Bishop and Carleton L. Stafford; Marguerite Ickls; "Letters of a Woman Homesteader" by Elinore Pruitt Stewart; "Our Homes and Their Adornments" by Almon C. Vamey; "American Folk Poetry — An Anthology" by Duncan Emrich; Women's Diaries of the Westward Journey" by Lillian Schlissel; "Aunt Jane of Kentucky" by Eliza Calvert Hall; Pioneer Women — Voices from the Kansas Frontier" by Joanna L. Stratton; "The Prairie Home Companion," Garrison Kellor, Minnesota Public Radio. "A Little Better Than Plumb" by Henry and Janice Holt Giles; "A Harvest Yet to Reap — A History of Prairie Women" by Linda Rasmussen, Lorna Rasmussen, Candace Savage and Anne Wheeler; and "Wisconsin Death Trip" by Michael Lesy.

The Quilt

The large quilt which measures 17 square feet, and 26 blocks was made by the Prairie Quilt Guild of Wichita.

This unusually large quilt was made for use as a prop in a play "Quilters," written by two Denver, Colo., women. The drama relates the life story of a fictitious pioneer woman, Sara McKentree Bonham. Each stage of Sara's life is illustrated in a block of the quilt, so that the entire quilt becomes a record of Sara's life.

Because the quilt is so large that it is hard to examine closely, duplicates of each of its 26 blocks were made and available for closer study and so the actresses can carry them.

The 17-foot quilt required the needlework of 85 women, and took seven weeks to complete. Although, some of the material was donated and all of the piecing and quilting donated, the quilt cost about $500 to complete.
